VOL. XII--NO. 133. RALEIGH, N. C., FRIDAY MORNING, AUGUST 2, 1878. $5.00 PER ANNUM

The Election.

The meagre returns received up to midnight do not disappoint public expectation regarding sweeping Democratic success throughout the State.

The loss of Cumberland, which goes Republican, is a disappointment, as also Cabarrus, which elects an Independent ticket. Hon. Josiah Turner is probably elected as an Independent in Orange, though the returns are incomplete from the county at large.

Granville is reported to have gone Democratic by a handsome majority, which was not to have been expected under ordinary circumstances. This news, if true, more than offsets Cumberland, for here the Democrats will gain a Senator and two members, against two members lost in Cumberland, for the Senatorial District of Cumberland and Harnett will undoubtedly send a Democratic Senator.

Catawba beats two Independents and a Republican, and in Burke the regular nominee is elected over the Independent. Buncombe is all right, and Iredell returns her usual Democratic majority; Mecklenburg polls up solid; while Cleaveland and Union occupy their accustomed places in the Democratic ranks. Rowan returns one Independent member to the House, and Davie, the other county of the Senatorial District, where Mr. Foard, an Independent Democrat, is opposing Mr. Henderson.

New Hanover and Pender return a Democratic Senator, which is a gain. Columbus rolls up an immense Democratic majority, and Wilson stands true to her colors, except that some Independents win on the county ticket. Franklin goes Democratic, which gives the House a Democratic member in Captain Charles M. Cooke. The Senatorial District of Franklin, Nash and Wilson is largely Democratic, and Nash returns a Democaatic member, and elects her Democratic county ticket. Alamance reports Democratic, and the election of Holt and Scales from the Senatorial District of Alamance and Guilford is elected beyond question.

At home the indications are good for the success of the Democratic Legislative ticket, with prospects of partially carrying the county ticket.

Altogether the Independents have fared but indifferently, and the Republicans have made no inroads upon the Democrats. As this State election bears directly on the Congressional contest in November, it leaves the Democracy in possession of a victorious field, and all Radical talk about increasing their representation from this State is mere vain boasting, and will go for naught.

It should be remembered that in those counties reported to have gone Independent, that the success of the Independents is not a Radical success, except in so far as by uniting with the disaffected Democrats, they were able to defeat the Democratic nominees. Even Mr. Turner, if elected, will repudiate the idea that his is a Radical success, for he claims to have run because of the unfairness of the county convention which decided against him.

The success of any of these Independents is to be deplored for its effect on party organization, but as far as one is able to survey the field this morning, the Democracy has no cause for regret over the results of yesterday's work.

Sudden Illness of Dr. Wright

Wilmington Star.

Dr. A. E. Wright, our Superintendent of Health, while standing in front of Mr. A. H. Neff's establishment, near the foot of Dock street, in conversation with Harbor Master Price, yesterday morning, between 11 and 12 o'clock, was suddenly seized with an epileptic attack and fell to the pavement. He was immediately removed to the saloon of Mr. Neff and placed on a lounge, from which he was subsequently conveyed to a comfortable room in the up-stairs of the building, where he remained until he was able to be carried to his residence in a buggy. In the meantime Dr. Geo. G. Thomas had been summoned and his relatives notified. He soon revived sufficiently to be taken home, and at last accounts was still improving, and it is hoped that he will be able in a few days to resume his professional duties.

Republican Inhumanity.

Oxford Torchlight.

There are poor paupers, whose dust is now returning to its mother earth, who, if they were allowed to come forth from their graves, would say that Radical office-holders had in a great measure shortened their days. How so? Because the pitiful little county order that they depended upon for support was grabbed up by some narrow-souled inhuman Radical wretch, and the few cents paid for it was not enough to sustain life. That is the way the poor of our county are cared for. Great God what a spectacle! Men stealing the very bread out of the mouths of persons who are under their protection and care. Men filling their pockets with illgotten gain and depriving God's poor of the actual necessities of life! Such are some of the acts of the Republican party.

CALDWELL COUNTY.

The Chester and Lenoir Narrow Gauge--Shelby District Conference--An Officer Beaten by a Woman.

Correspondence of the News.

LENOIR, July 31.

Work has been resumed on the Chester & Lenoir Narrow Gauge Railroad in this county. There is a force of about sixty convicts employed by a local contracting company; and it is thought that all the grading between Lenoir and the point of junction on the Western North Carolina Railroad will be completed in about six months. This will finish up the grading on the entire line of the road. There are two considerable bridges to build, and then the iron will be placed upon the track.

CONDITION OF THE COMPANY.

The railroad company has a sufficiency of South Carolina bonds, as I learn, to build the bridges and iron and equip the road so soon as the road bed is ready. Hence we are expecting the cars at Lenoir some time during the next year. We have many reasonable assurances that our hopes will not be disappointed. The new officers of the road have inspired confidence all along the line, and especially so in Caldwell county. Here the local contracting company is composed of men of energy, and capital; and there is a determination to put the work through, as far as this county is concerned, at the earliest possible date. A sufficiency of stock has been taken to enable the company to perform the contracts for grading in the county; and so all parties here are jubilant at the prospect of seeing the cars in Lenoir soon. I regret, however, to state that four or five of the convicts have escaped since they were brought into Caldwell. The blame attaches to one of the old Catawba guards.

SHELBY CONFERENCE.

The Shelby District Conference held its session here last week. There was quite a large attendence, among others Dr. Jones Pres't, of Greensboro Female College. No business of a public nature was transacted, which I think worth while to inform you of, except the passage of a resolution which constitutes a reflection upon the North Carolina delegates to the Atlanta General Conference.

The resolution I refer to expresses a decided "disapprobatiou" of the action of the North Carolina Conference delegation relative to the division of the Conference, and the creation of a new one. The following is reported to us as being the grounds for the censure. The North Carolina Conference at its annual session in 1877, at Salisbury, passed, unanimously, a resolution petitioning the General Conference to grant a division of the North Carolina and Holston Conferences, and to create a new Conference to be known as the Western North Carolina. A somewhat similar resolution, with instructions, was passed by he Holston Conference; when the subject of this new Conference was brought up at Atlanta, it is contended that a portion, if not all of the delegates from North Carolina, violated their implied instructions, and endeavored as much as possible, to put the whole matter in disfavor with the proper Committees and everywhere else in the General Conference; and they succeeded in defeating the scheme.

DESIRING DIVISION.

This matter of a new Conference has been for a long time a cherished object among the Methodist in the Shelby District, and a very large body of them consider that the action of the delegates was not only in very bad faith, but was really not in harmony with the spiritual interests of the church. It is contended further, as a fact, that the committee on boundaries in the General Conference had determined to recommend the divisions asked for; but that certain of the North Carolina delegates, instigated by personal or local considerations, surrounded the subject with matters foreign to the spirit and letter of the resolutions of their Conference, and thus succeeded in thwarting the wishes of the great body of the Methodists in Western North Carolina. Hence the action of this District Conference, the first occasion many of those people have had since the adjournmeut of the General Conference, for a general and public expression of the sentiment of the church in the district. I do not desire to be understood herein as expressing my own opinion, or offering comment upon the resolution. I simply give the above as matter of news.

ROCKING A REVENUER.

I have just learned that a revenue officer has been seriously wounded by rocks thrown by a Mrs. Lowman, near this place. The officer had her husband under arrest for an old whisky offence, when she attacked him, and succeeded in putting in three heavy blows in his parietal region. Our Western women will fight.

Refreshing and general rains have at last come to this county. The corn crop has been seriously affected by the long drought, but it is hoped the wet weather now will bring it out.

NO NAME.

Gladstone Vehemently Attacked.

By Cable to the News.

LONDON, August 1.—The Times vehemently attacks Mr. Gladstone this morning and says of his speeches. The House of Commons listens with bated breath for his contribution to the great controversy and for some prophetic glimpse in the future. He speaks two hours and a half and occupies seven columns of our space. He carries his hearers irresistibly down a torrent of brilliant oratory, but when it is over, and we have time to breathe, to what does it all amount?—with few exceptions to nothing but a prolonged invective against the present ministry. Scarcely anything they have done or said escapes denunciation. Peace has been made, but no thanks to them. They have preferred servitude to freedom have pretended to defend public law and have really betrayed it, have made a mad convention, violated existing treaties, brought into question an important prerogative of the Crown, discredited us abroad, and weakened us at home. But who are these plenipotentiaries whom he denounces with this unmitigated, unrelieved censure. They are not merely Lords Beaconsfield and Salisbury, they are the representatives of England before Europe and the world. Their work when ratified is the work of England, they have not usurped power over an unwilling people. Gladstone himself admits that they command the approval of the mass of their countrymen. There are persons in the world besides Beaconsfield, and larger questions at stake than that of the conduct of the ministry in the details of a prolonged negotiation. We regret to say it, but the whole tenor of Gladstone's speech by what it omitted was inconsistent with statesmanship or generous patriotism, and he must proportionately forfeit his claim to the attention of his countrymen on this great issue.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

Meeting of the Democratic Convention--Hampton's Policy Endorsed--The Entire State Ticket Renominated.

By Telegraph to the News.

COLUMBIA, August 1.—The State Democratic Convention met this day with a full quota of delegates present from all the counties. General John D. Kennedy was unanimously elected president of the Convention. The Committee on Platform and Resolutions were organized and the Convention took a recess until five o'clock. Upon reassembling the Committee on Platform submitted a report which reaffirms the platform of 1876; substantial in language adopted to the present condition of affairs. Its provisions are in harmony with the pledges and performance of Governor Hampton in the administration of the government, based upon equal and exact justice to all citizens, without regard to race, color, or previous condition, and guaranteeing full and ample protection to all classes in the administration of justice. Accompanying the platform is a series of the resolutions which urge unity of purpose and action among the Democrats, denouncing fusion with the Republicans, and deprecates the presence of Independent candidates, also strongly urges the fostering of immigration, inviting citizens from every quarter of the Globe, to make their homes in South Carolina; also directs attention to the revenue troubles in the upper counties, urging Congress to so amend the law as to quiet the irritation of these troubles and requesting President Hayes to grant amnesty to the illicit Distillers in the said counties. The platform and resolutions were adopted. A resolution endorsing Governor Hampton and the entire State ticket and nominating them for re-election was unanimously adopted by a rising vote amid great enthusiasm. Hampton and others made speeches which were vociferously applauded. The Convention adjourns to-night.

A Field for Gen. Clingman.

Greensboro Patriot.

Gen. Clingman has entered the lists against Vance. The General writes voluminously when he writes at all, and if everybody attaches as much importance to what he says as he does himself he would be a power. His head is level in some things as, for instance, "that hot biscuits have slain their thousands and the frying pan its tens of thousands in North Caroiina." We believe he is right in this and only regret that he sees fit to turn from a field where he might render such valuable service to his fellow mortals, to wage impotent war upon a man of whom he is jealous and who is every way his superior.

Let him confine himself to the extirpation of hot biscuits and the frying-pan and he may have the consolation, when dying, of knowing that he has lived to some purpose.

Who knows what the General might do within a year if he confined himself to "biscuits and the frying pan" for which he has real genius? But we fear in that time that he cannot match Clay. Seven years will hardly make him a rival in fame to Henry Clay, unless, as we remarked above he confine himself to "biscuits and the frying pan" in which he may achieve immortality and eclipse Clay.

Failures in July.

By Telegraph to the News.

NEW YORK, August 1.—Sixty-seven failures are reported in July. Aggregate liabilities $5,738,171. Assets $2,702,442, an increase of thirteen failures, and $1,400,000 liabilities compared with the record for the previous month, and an increase of 50 per cent. in the number, and double the amount of assets, as compared with July, 1877.

THE ELECTION.

Counties Heard From---Democrats to the Front.

Special to the News.

ROWAN.

SALISBURY, August 1.—The result in Rowan: John S. Henderson is elected to the Senate, and Barringer, Independent, elected to the House of Commons. It is doubtful which of the two Democratic candidates will win for the House of Commons. All the old county officers are re-elected. B.

GRANVILLE.

HENDERSON, Aug. 1.—Democratic majority here fifty. A gain of two hundred. The county has gone Democratic by from three to five hundred. M.

Indications are that Granville has elected all of the Democratic candidates by several hundred majority. This township gives a majority of forty and a gain of about two hundred. C.

HALIFAX.

WELDON, August 1.—In this town the vote is: For the Senate, Zollicoffer, 765; Epps, 39; for the Commons, White and Reynolds, 319 each. They were the Republican nominees, and there was no opposition. The other ballots are now being counted, but it will take several hours to complete the count. The vote is said to be the largest ever cast here, and perfect order prevailed all day. The color line was entirely ignored. Every body, white and black, voted for whom they regarded the best men. C.

MECKLENBURG.

CHARLOTTE, August 1.—Returns come in slowly. Returns from this county not yet complete, though enough known to establish the fact that the straight Democratic ticket is overwhelmingly elected. Majority cannot be given tonight. Partial returns from Iredell and Cabarrus indicate the election of the Democratic nominees for all offices. C.

CATAWBA.

HICKORY, Aug. 1.—Election passed off quietly. The average vote polled. The nominee, R. B. Davis, elected to Legislature over Merrill and Foard, Independents, and Barringer, Republican. All nominees for County offices elected, except Sheriff, the result of which is yet doubtful, Jonas Cline, the old Sheriff running Independent.

BURKE.

MORGANTON, August 1.—B. A. Berry, Democratic nominee for the House, elected over Parks, Independent. Democratic majority three hundred. Sheriff Brittain, Democratic nominee, elected D. C. Pearson, Independent, elected Clerk. J.

COLUMBUS.

FLEMINGTON, Aug. 1.—The entire Democratic county ticket elected. V. V. Richardson's majority for the house is over a thousand. S.

BUNCOMBE.

ASHEVILLE, August 1.—Falling off of vote in the county on the vote of 1876, of some 800; Carter and Atkinson are elected by an estimated majority of 150 to 200; Davidson carries the county from 300 to 400, which secures his election. The county will be close between Ferguson and Erwin. Cocke's vote is small.

ALAMANCE.

COMPANY SHOPS, August 1—Five out of eleven townships heard from. Mebane sixty-eight ahead of Boyd. Holt runs ahead of the ticket. The Democrats will carry the county. No opposition to the county ticket.

CUMBERLAND.

FAYETTEVILLE, August 1—Lutterloh and Blocker, Republicans, elected to the House by a large majority. The balance of the Democratic ticket, with the exception of the Register, Campbell, independent Democrat probably elected.

CABARRUS.

CHARLOTTE, Aug. 1.—Telegrams just received indicate the election in Cabarrus of Redwine, Independent, for the Senate; Orchard, National, for the House; and Slough, Independent, for Sheriff. Every Democrat having opposition was defeated. C.

NEW HANOVER.

WILMINGTON, August 1.—In this county the regular Republican ticket is elected. There was no Democratic opposition, except Superior Court Clerk, for which position Colonel John D. Taylor is beaten by a very small majority. Returns so far received indicate the election of Robert K. Bryan, Democrat, to the Senate from New Hanover and Pender. Lutterloh and Blocker, Independents, are elected in Cumberland by a considerable majority. No returns from other counties. B.

FRANKLIN.

LOUISBURG, August 1.—The entire Democratic ticket is elected in this county. Cooke's majority is over two hundred. B.

ORANGE.

HILLSBORO', Aug. 1.—Hillsboro precinct, for the Senate, gives Graham two hundred and fifty-nine, Williamson two hundred and fifty-one, Brown, Republican, three hundred and six, Mebane, Independent, three hundred and twenty-three. For the House, Angier two hundred and twenty-nine, Hutchins two hundred and twenty-five, Turner three hundred and forty-six, Guthrie one, Jenkins one. Last election Graham had three hundred and twenty-five, Turner two hundred and eighty-three.

DURHAM, Aug. 1.—Durham goes Democratic largely, except that Turner, Independent, leads Hutchins, Democrat, for the House.

WILSON.

WILSON, August 1—King and Harris unanimously elected for Senate. Taylor elected over Boykins, Independent, by five hundred votes. The Democratic County ticket is elected with the exception of Sheriff and Clerk, Independent, by a large majority. Everything quiet.

UNION, CLEAVELAND, BUNCOMBE AND CABARRUS.

In Union the Democratic ticket elected, except Sheriff Hasty, Republican, elected to that office.

Cleaveland: Hazle is probably elected Senator, L. E. Powers, elected Representative.

Buncombe elected Carter and Atkinson by 200. Davidson is elected Senator. The county is close between Ferguson and Erwin. Cocke's vote is small.

Redwine, Orchard and Slough, all Independents, are certainly elected in Cabarrus. J. P. C.

KNIGHTS OF LABOR.

Organizing in the Lehigh Valley--Secret Grips and Passwords.

Correspondence of the Philadelphia Times

ALLENTOWN, July 30.

A more desolate scene cannot be imagined than that presented by the idle rolling mills, spike works, plate mills and furnaces along the river front of this city, flanking the tracks of the Lehigh Valley Railroad. Not many years ago these works were running at their fullest capacity day and night, and a busy, active army of workmen thronged each one of them. Many of these busy hands have sought and found work elsewhere mostly as tillers of the soil on the plains of Kansas. Others are roaming about the country, living a sort of semi-barbaric, nomadic life. Still others have found homes by traveling "over the hills to the poor house." The balance remain in their old homes, eking out a miserable existence and kept from the most abject despondency only by the hope that inspired Micawber—the hope that something may soon "turn up." This population is found in the lower wards of the city. They are just the people upon whom the communistic leaders can best operate. They are ripe for the work. It is not strange, therefore, that having made a comparative failure elsewhere the Knights of Labor should here make an effort to establish a branch of their order, so deep-rooted, firm and enthusiastic that it might leaven the whole Lehigh Valley.

CHANCES OF INCREASING.

Within the past two weeks such a branch has been established here with the utmost secrecy. The number of members is as yet very small, including not more than fifteen of our own people, though twenty-two persons were initiated at the first meeting, three of them hailing from Catasauqua, two from Coplay and two from South Bethlehem. There is reason for believing that the order will have a considerable increase, though, as a rule, the workingmen are fighting shy of these affairs.

A PANACEA FOR SALL EVIL.

The Knights of Labor are a sort of a Mollie Maguire association, being oath-bound and having passwords, grips and other signs of recognition. High authority says the objects of the association are manifold and warranted as a panacea for all the complaints of the laborer. They propose to overthrow the whole present social system by the establishment of the Commune. They will demand compulsory education, the free use of all institutions of higher education to all classes, the enforcement of the eight-hour law, a co-operative system of labor, a cession of personal property and chartered right to the State, the abolition of the savings banks, the withdrawing of the national bank circulation, and its replacement by government bank notes, the taxation of all church property and the introduction of a scaled income tax, in place of the direct taxation, and so on ad infinitum. Unlike the Ancient Order of Hibernians, the Knights of Labor do not confine themselves to any nationality or creed. A prominent Catholic priest, whom the Times correspondent interviewed on the subject, said that this equality was one of the most dangerous features of the order, in his opinion, coupling with it the remark that in many sections hie church had lost control of its mals members, who joined this order despite the warnings of the church.

THE OATH TAKEN.

The obligation of the order is an oath to "the Lord God" that the affiant will abide by the laws and constitution of the "Assembly," as the branches are called, that the proceedings will be to him a sealed letter; that he will not disclose the name of a member of "the noble and holy order;" that he will never reveal the act of any member; that he will sustain and defend the order; that he will contribute to his uttermost to sustain any assembly in the fight against the oppressor; that he will assist a fellow member in need; that he will not give the password or sign to any member without the permission of the Master Workman, and finally calls upon his head the just vengeance of his associates should he violate the obligation. The utmost penalty for the traitor is death.

THE UNKNOWN KNIGHT.

Among the officers is an Unknown Knight, who directs all secret expenditures, and is not even known to his associates, being an appointment by the highest authority. He notifies members of the nature and character of duties assigned them, without revealing himself or compromising them. This is a vast improvement upon the old Mollie Maguireism, where a Kehoe, a Donohoe and a Fisher would issue his orders openly and above board. The Unknown Knight is an office that has developed from the experience of the Mollies. It will readily be observed what an influence for evil such an official may wield. The workingmen fully realize this, and hence are fighting shy of it.

Turkish Affairs.

By Cable to the News.

LONDON, August 1.—A Times Pera dispatch of the 30th says the Austrian occupation of Bosnia and Herzegovina threatens to produce a ministerial crisis in Constantinople. The Minister of War and Minister of Public Instruction are strongly opposed to the occupation, and think it should not be submitted to without a formal convention. Grand Vizier Safet Pasha who wishes to avoid difficulties with Austria is at Variance with his colleagues. There is no doubt that the Albanian Chieftians have formed a confederation to resist the encroachments of Servia and Montenegro. The Porte is preparing a memorandum to be addreseds to the signatories of the treaty of Berlin setting forth its views of the Greek claims in answer to the statement of the Greek representative at the Berlin Congress.

The German Elections.

By Cable to the News.

BERLIN, Aug. 1.—Complete returns from the Kingdom of Wurtemburg elect seven free Conservatives, three Imperialists, two National Liberals and one Ultramontane. A second ballot in three districts will be necessary. The free Conservatives and Imperialists elected may be considered supporters of Bismarck. The National Liberals have carried the Duchy of Brunswick.

FRANKFORT, Aug. 1—Returns from fifty-eight South German districts show the election of nineteen National Liberals. six Conservatives, three Ultramontanes and one Separatist. Second ballots will be held in nine districts.

A Lively Scene in Parliament.

By Cable to the News.

LONDON, August 1.—In the House of Commons to-day, Mr. Robert Lowe, (Liberal) resumed the debate on Hartington's resolutions. The debate led to a lively scene. Lowe accusing the government of acting a falsehood. Sir Stafford Northcote, Chancellor of the Exchequer, rose to the point of order that the language of Lowe was unparliamentary. The speaker ruled that as the remark was not applied to a member of the Government it was in order. Lowe then repeated his statement, when the speaker ruled that it was out of order as being applied to members of the Government. Lowe withdrew the expression.

LORD BEACONSFIELD.

An American Criticism of the English Statesman.

New York Tribune.

There never was a statesman who brought to the practice of politics a more dazzling assortment of philosophical theories than Mr. Disraeli. A quarter of a century ago he published a trilogy of novels to explain his schemes of social regeneration and national greatness, and at intervals since that time, even down to the recent appearance of a new preface to his collected writings, he has occasionally revived the ideas which made so great a stir when "Young England" was supposed to be a mighty force. Yet strange to say there is not a statesman of modern times whom the world has so steadily refused to accept in earnest. In the moment of his triumph he is always a subject of jocose comment to his own party, and England is disposed to greet his greatest achievements with a laugh. His countrymen see him under all circumstances with that half-closed eye and half-smiling, half-sneering lip which figure in the pages of Punch. It is the face of a man who does not impose upon himself, and does not try very hard to impose upon other people; whose gravest words never carry conviction, whose professions may startle and entertain, but are not really intended to convince. He accomplishes a remarkable and certainly very serious public achievement, and the people laugh and clap their hands as if it were the feat of an acrobat. He is rewarded with a place in the peerage, and they laugh again, and admire his new coronet as if they thought that of course the jewels, being his, must be paste, and the glittering metal only brass. He returns from the Congress as a conquerer, and the humorists of London would bring him into the city on the back of an elephant, as if he were a performer at Astley's, while the graver organs of opinion, carried away by the general disposition to regard Lord Beaconsfield as a joke, invent for him ridiculous titles and burlesque honors. He will be remembered in history as the statesman who had a nation of followers, and no believers.

THE DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

Congressional Nominations.

FOR CONGRESS, THIRD DISTRICT:
ALFRED M, WADDELL,
of New Hanover.

FOR CONGRESS, SIXTH DISTRICT:
WALTER L. STEELE,
of Rockingham.

FOR CONGRESS, SEVENTH DISTRICT:
ROBERT F. ARMFIELD, of Iredell.

ELECTION, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 5TH.

Congressional Convention.

A Convention of the Democrats and Conservatives of the Fourth District, will be held in the city of Raleigh, on Thursday the 22nd day of August next, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Congress. Each county will be entitled to one vote for every one hundred votes and fractional part over fifty, given for Gov. Vance in 1876.

By order of District Ex. Committee,
H. A. LONDON, Jr.
July 2, 1878. Chairman.

The Democratic papers in the District will please copy.

If North Carolina does not send back her seven Democratic representatives to Congress by increased majorities, the Democrats of the State will have failed most unexpectedly in their duty.

The Congressional election should occupy the attention of the people now to the exclusion of the Senatorial contest which does not come off for two months after the fate of the nation shall have been decided in the various Congressional districts of all the States.

It is said that Governor Vance would have taken the election to the Senate just as Judge Merrimon did. Was not the support of the Republicans of the Legislature tendered him if he would place himself in the attitude that Judge Merrimon occupied? Didn't he decline to do so?

Now that the State campaign is over, the attention of the people will be drawn to the Congressional contest, which throughout the country assumes an importance scarcely second to a Presidential election, for it is generally conceded that the complexion of the next House of Representatives practically determines the great contest of 1880. The Congress elected this year counts the next Presidential vote. The Northern Radicals are actually hoping for a gain of from one to four Congressmen in this State. They take much comfort from the fact that Colonel John R. Winston is running as a National in the district of Colonel Scales.

The election of yesterday settles the Senatorial question. The sentiment of the people on the subject—their preference as it stood at the several ballot boxes is the sentiment that must prevail in the selection of a Senator next winter. The members chosen for the Legislature have their minds made up, they understand the wishes of their people, and appreciating the public determination that the organization of the Democratic party shall be maintained and respected through obedience to the party will, the Senatorial question is now properly adjourned to the caucus meeting of the Democratic party, and all further agitation of the subject is premature and out of place. The matter is now in the hands of those who will decide upon it in the caucus of the Democratic party.

The Farmer and Mechanic.

This eight page weekly, published under the auspices of the State Department of Agriculture, and edited by Captain Randolph A. Shotwell, assisted by a corps of able contributing editors, has reached number sixteen of its second volume, and will before long have entered upon its second year.

It is the most vigorous and creditable agricultural publication yet undertaken in the State. Its departments are all full and well arranged, presenting more practical reading matter for the farm and home circle than is to be found in any similar publication. Fresh and newsy, the selections for the Farmer and Mechanic are made with the greatest care by its industrious and discriminating editor, while the original articles are the productions of the best practical minds of the State.

It should be a sufficient guarantee of the merit and excellence of this publication that it is conducted by Captain Shotwell, so well known to the newspaper readers of the State, and having on his staff such gentlemen as Colonel John D. Cameron. Professsor Kerr, State Geologist, Professor A. R Ledoux, of the Agricultural Station Chapel Hill, and Captain Nat A. Gregory, of Granville, Captain C. B. Denson, Secretary State Agricultural Society, and Mrs. Cornelia Spencer, of Chapel Hill, give his publication an array of talent excelled by none.

The Farmer and Mechanic should be read by all clases in the State.

60th N. C., Reports.

This is the title of an excellent reprint in one volume of first and second Winston's Law and Winston's Equity, with annotations by Col. John W. Hinsdale of the Raleigh Bar, which has just been issued from the press. It will be remembered that when our Supreme Court adopted the system, which now obtains in all the States of the Union (except three), of numbering the reports and calling them by the name of the State instead of, as heretofore, by the name of the Reporter, they numbered the first volume after the change, the 63d, giving as a reason an expectation that there would be a reprint of Winston's three thin volumes and their condensation into one. This expectation, after the lapse of ten years, has now been fulfilled, and Col. Hinsdale brings them out in a handsome volume which he has appropriately labelled 60th N. C., (as Phillips' Law and Equity come between it and 63 N. C.) This will be a great convenience in citation it being less cumbersome to cite the current pages of the 60*th N. C.*, than the pages of 1 Winston's Law, 2 Winston's Law and Winston's Equity. For the convenience of those, however, who use the old volumes, the paging of the old edition is preserved in the margin.

The three volumes of Winston were printed during the war, of course on very inferior paper, and the proof reading and press work were of a corresponding low order. Besides the volumes are now out of print. Col. Hinsdale has rendered the legal profession and the public a real service in bringing out a fresh, bright, clean edition in one volume with a single title in place of the scarce, badly printed, triple-titled, three volume edition.

The new volume is well gotten up in every way. The annotations are useful and evince the case, research and industry to be expected of the excellent lawyer who has prepared them. The Index and list of cited cases are full and accurate. Indeed the Index is unusually full and is an improvement over most of the legal volumes now issued in the case which has been displayed in avoiding the necessity of cross references. The letter press and press work (that of the News Job office) are good and leave little to be desired.

Lord Bacon says that every lawyer owes a debt to his profession. Col. Hinsdale has paid it in a very handsome manner in the excellent volume now lying before us.

The Senatorial Squabble.

The opponents of Governor Vance have long striven to make him appear responsible for the disruption of the party in 1872, whereby the Republicans were made able to dictate the United States Senator chosen at that session of the Legislature.

For a series of months letter writers in the newspapers have charged upon the Governor, criticised and disparaged him, and of late they have pursued him to the point of denouncing, as unworthy the public confidence and support, a man whom the people of this State have for years esteemed as among the most meritorious of living sons.

And this same class hold the Governor responsible for the agitation which has of late obtained on the Senatorial question, and whenever in localities irreconcilable differences have arisen in the party among Democrats, he is held accountable, in every instance, for the want of party harmony, whatever the cause or the issue that may divide party friends.

These things have proceeded to the point of intolerable outrage on an innocent man. Governor Vance was a candidate for the caucus nomination to be Senator in 1872, and he was fairly and squarely nominated, receiving a majority of the Democratic strength of the entire Legislature; for so firmly had he presented himself on Democratic ground, and so fixed were his principles as a strict party, caucus abiding man, determined to accept no office unless called to it by the majority voice of the Democratic party, that his friends in the caucus passed the rule that a majority of all the Democrats of both Houses, whether present in the caucus or not, should be necessary to a nomination. Under this rule Governor Vance was nominated for Senator.

He was not elected because a dozen and a half of refractory Democrats determined not to stand by the caucus nomination, preferring the disruption of the party to the subordination of their preference for another individual, and their personal opposition to Vance, which no sense of party duty seemed to them sufficient to forego. Beyond the charge conveyed in the hackneyed phrase, of "packing," which was long ago disposed of and abandoned, for ex-Senator Love now says the opposition was because of a broken pledge on the part of Vance, no one has ever been able to allege the slightest impropriety on the part of the caucus nominee, throughout the entire period of the Senatorial contest of 1872. On the contrary he maintained the attitude of a strict party man pending the whole affair, and nowhere and on no occasion has he ever swerved in the slightest degree from the line of rigid party discipline and compact organization.

How, in the face of these facts, any charge reflecting in any manner on Governor Vance. or fixing upon him responsibility for the transactions of that period can be conscienciously urged, or for one moment entertained by persons having the slightest respect for truth and decency, it is impossible to imagine. He was not a bolter and his friends were not bolters. They stood by the party, and never flinched when defeat stared them in the face. They went down with the colors of the Democratic party flying.

But with the other side the case was different. They hoisted the white flag and parleyed with the enemy. Under the colors of neutrality they met and arranged a truce, the Radical enemy dictating terms, which were that they be allowed to name for the Democratic party, against the will and wish of its majority in and out of the Legislature, a United States Senator, and this treaty arrangement was ratified by the parties to it, and put into effect. What part, pray had Vance in such transaction? And what was the expressed sentiment of the entire Democratic party, that followed in denunciation of the performance?

Respecting the agitation of the past few months which has degenerated into a Senatorial squabble. Governor Vance has had nothing to do, whatever. He nor his friends are responsible for it. It has sprung from the same determination to override the will of the Democratic party that wrought its temporary defeat six years ago. Encountering a sentiment just as determined that the Senatorial scenes of 1872 shall not be repeated in 1879, the opponents of Governor Vance and the advocates, and abettors of party disorganization have been enabled to produce a controversy to distract the minds of the people, and the occasion chosen was that of a political campaign in which members of the Legislature to elect a Senator were to be chosen. It was desired and designed to so operate on the public mind as to bring to the Legislature, sufficient of all elements hostile to the regular Democratic party, that, if harmonized and welded together on the Senatorial question, would overpower the Democratic strength and again make it impossible for that party to elect its caucus nominee. Of course Governor Vance is responsible for this sort of political, or rather partizan tactics, if any other charge implicating him as against the best interests of the Democratic party is to be sustained or believed.

But the election for members of the Legislature is now over. The gentlemen delegated by the people to select a Senator are named. Further efforts to misrepresent and prejudice Governor Vance must be for the purpose of unduly influencing the minds of the Legislators elect. The friends of Governor Vance are satisfied to submit the question to them without further argument, and let them go into caucus to find their verdict, for it is to the caucus, and to the Democratic caucus alone, that Governor Vance appeals. To the caucus he submits himself, and by the decision of the caucus will he abide, whatever and for whoever it may decide.

As the friends of Governor Vance did not lay out the ground for this controversy, as they did not initiate it, and as no action, public or private of his has made it necessary, they will not of their own motion, prolong it into an interminable campaign. But if the writers and the press of the opposition shall persist in it, the friends of Vance will feel in duty bound to continue the controversy into the January session of the General Assembly, for these assaults on Vance are assaults upon the organization of the Democratic party, and to continue them is to continue the effort to disrupt the Democratic party.

Therefore, it is for these bolters and disorganizers to say whether, now that the elections are over, there shall be a cessation of the Senatorial squabble.

Xanthine Co., Richmond, Va.:
I have used the Xanthine now for three years, and have induced others to try it, and have never known it to fail in accomplishing all you claim for it. It is an excellent tonic a pleasant dressing, removing and preventing dandruff and all unpleasant itching, promoting and preserving the natural growth and color of the hair, and rendering it glossy and pliable. I confidently, cheerfully and knowingly recommend it.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

——Six special policemen were on duty yesterday.

——The usual scenes of trickery and attempts to foist false tickets upon persons unsuspecting, at the polls yesterday, were some of the features of the day.

——The Post Office is at last finished. It is to be hoped that Gov. Holden will not longer see the public inconvenienced in the present shanty, but will forthwith move in.

——The last dumber of the Farmer and Mechanic is bright and sparkling as usual. Captain Shotwell knows how to get up a good paper. There is not a better one in the State.

——The 60th N. C., Reports is the latest issue from the press. It is a reprint of 1st and 2d Winston's Law and Winston's Equity, in one volume, with annotations by John W. Hinsdale, Esq.

——The Democratic district Convention for the first Congressional district, will be held at Edenton on the 8th of August. The prominent candidates are Hon. Jesse J. Yates, Capt. Octavius Coke, Maj. Louis C. Latham, and J. Moore.

——Miss E. M. Coe, the teacher of the Kindergarten class at University Normal School, will arrive in the city to-day, and be the guest of the Yarbrough House till Monday. Those interested in the Kindergarten Asylum will have an opportunity of making Miss Coe's acquaintance and learn the salient points of her methods.

Another Fair.

A project is on foot to establish a fair ground at Winslow, and it will probably prove successful.

The Temperature.

Temperature yesterday, as indicated by the thermometer at Tucker's store:

6 a. m.,	76°	2 p. m.,	96°
10 "	84°	6 "	92°

Mayor's Court.

The only case before His Honor was a youth guilty of disorderly conduct at the Central depot, who after having had a night in the guard house allowed him for repentance, was dismissed with a reprimand.

Raleigh Races.

The fall races at the Fair Grounds near the city begin August 9th, when several running races, both quarter and mile heats will take place. Also trotting Horses from all parts of the State are solicited.

Excursion to Weldon.

Capt. R. H. Brooks, one of the most amiable of conductors, will take charge of the annual excursion to Weldon, on Saturday next, August 3rd. The fare for the round trip has been placed at only $1. Cars will be reserved specially for the use of ladies and their escorts. The train will reach Weldon in time to connect with the South bound passenger train on the W. and W. Railway.

A Family Quarrel.

James Jeffreys, white, yesterday in a family quarrel struck his wife. Her father raised a chair to strike Jeffreys, when the latter took down his fowling piece, when the old man desisted. Jeffreys then, with his gun, went into the darksome shades of Bledsoe's Grove, where he was captured by a policeman. He was put in the guard house and will be tried to-day.

Revenue Matters.

The Greensboro New North State is authority for the following information concerning this revenue district: "Colonel D. R. Goodloe has been appointed Internal Revenue Agent for North Carolina, with the exception of Dr. Mott's district. Col. G. will have headquarters at Raleigh. Col. Chapman, of Virginia, has been appointed for South Carolina and that part of North Carolina in Dr. Mott's district. His headquartes will be at Statesville. Mr. Atkinson, of West Virginia, takes that State and Virginia. This covers the territory heretofore in charge of Maj. Wagner, who will go to Pennsylvania, where he has been assigned."

An Infallible Sign by which to Know a Fully Ripened Watermelon.

When the melon begins to change color inside and its seed to turn black, a small black speck, scale or blister begins to appear on the outer cuticle or rind. These are multiplied and enlarged as the fruit matures. A ripe melon will shew them thickly sown over the surface; a partial development only indicates half ripened fruit; a full crop of blisters reveals its perfect ripeness. When hundreds of melons are strewed along the sidewalk you will have to look pretty sharply to find one that exhibts a satisfactory "escutcheon," to borrow a term from M. Guenon. But it is unfailing when found, and by following this guide you may walk away with your melon with the most entire confidence. The blister is only to be seen upon a close inspection, but is plainly visible when that is given. This is what the Petersburg Index Appeal man says.

Election Disorders.

At an early hour yesterday morning, Henry Austin, a drunken negro from Oberlin, was arrested at the Court House, for tearing up election tickets. He was locked up in the gaurd house.

A negro named Doc. Austin, inky as to color, and gorgeous as to watch chain, was unpleasantly officious at the polls for the 1st ward. Much under the influence of a very inferior article of liquor, he assumed entire control of the voting arrangements. The police went down and arrested him. Around the Court House all day a mob of negroes sat or stood. A negro ran from the scene of the arrest and informed this Court House crowd of its occurrence and said "Let's take the polls." As one man, with whoops and cries, they ran to the Baptist Grove. The street was filled with the rush of blacks, as they swarmed to the scene. On arrival there their ardor cooled and they did not take the polls. The negro Austin was lead off and stowed away in the guard house, while the rampant rough who started the Court House crowd was made to share his quarters.

Personals.

Hon. S. L. Phillips, Solicitor General, of the U. S., is at the Yarborough.

W. T. Blackwell Esq., and wife, and E. J. Parish, Esq., and wife, of Durham, are at the Yarborough.

Mrs. Andrew Syme and daughter, and Miss Laura Wiley, of Raleigh, are summering at the Central Hotel, Winston.

Misses Elise, Mary and Martha, daughters of the late Governor Bragg, arrived in the city on yesterday, and are stopping with Mrs. H. L. Stevens, on New Berne Avenue,

Gov. Vance was expected in the city yesterday, but a telegram announcing the increased illness of Mrs. Vance delayed him.

R. B. Peebles, Esq., of Jackson, and D. R. Goodloe, Esq., of Warrenton, are in the city.

Supreme Court.

Court met at 9 o'clock on yesterday. All the Justices present.

Call of appeals at the end of the docket was resumed.

Fannie E. Conigland et al. vs. C. S. Smith, Administrator, from Halifax; argued for the plaintiffs by Gilliam and Gatling and R. O. Burton, Junior, and for the defendant by T. N. Hill.

W. I. Winfield vs. R. O. Burton, Junior, Administrator et al.. from Halifax; argued for the plaintiff by Gilliam and Gatling, Walter Clark and Day and Hall, and for the defendants by T. N Hill.

Isabella Burnet et als. vs. T. W Nicholson et als. from Halifax; argued for the plaintiffs by J. B. Batchelor and S. Whitaker, and for the defandants by Walter Clark and Mullen and Moore.

Johnstone Jones vs. A. T. Mial et als. from Wake; argued for the plaintiff by Merrimon, Fuller and Ashe, George H. Snow and W. W. Jones, and for the defendants by E. G. Haywood and J. B. Batchelor.

Pending the argument in the last case, Court adjourned until this (Friday) morning at 9 o'clock.

Messrs. Hunter & Beckwith.

We publish this morning a very attractive advertisement of the above enterprising firm of lumber dealers at Manly Station, N. C. The firm is composed of two first class business men in their line, and is growing rapidly in popular favor. They dispose of lumber in large quantities along the line of the Chatham Railroad and in all sections of the State, and occasionally sell to Virginia. Their lumber ranks high among builders, and is specially regarded for its uniform and reliable grade. As an evidence of their growth they are now erecting another saw mill at Cameron. Their present capacity is a 30 horse power engine, and they are prepared to make 10,000 feet of lumber per day. The R. & A. Railroad patronize the firm largely, having given them a recent order for 111,000 feet of lumber. Operating as they do on the prompt delivery and prompt collect plan, it is not strange that they have built up a large and successful business.

Death.

Aged five years, Richard Hampton, son of Capt. R. T. and Mrs. E. C. Fulghum, died in this city yesterday, after a brief illness, of diptheria. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of the community in this their loss. The remains will to-day be taken to Goldsboro at which place the funeral will take place.

All Babies are diminutive Ceasars, since they come, they see, they conquer, sometimes by their gentle stillness but oftener by continued and uproarious crying induced by Colic, Teething, Flatulence, etc. Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup by its gentle yet specific influence quiets the little ones without ever producing the least injurious effect. Price only 25 cents per bottle.

Western North Carolina Railroad.

The withdrawalby Weddin & Bailey of their coaches and teams from the Western North Carolina Railroad, at Henry, will result in no inconvenience to the traveling public, as an entirely new outfit of coaches, carriages and hacks, with splendid horses, was placed on the line between Henry and Asheville, by Brown and Verble, before the above mentioned withdrawal of Weddin & Bailey.

The new line offers every facility for the accomodation and convenience of the public. Families can still have conveyances to themselves when desired.

Railroad companies and others who have been selling tickets to Asheville and Warm Springs with coupons attached for stage line from head of Western North Carolina Railroad, will continue to do so, as such coupons will be recognized and received for fare over the new line. 1m.

A Big Indian War.

It is the opinion of those high in authority that an Indian war on a very large scale this summer is inevitable, and it is the avowed opinion of those who have used Barham's Infallible Pile Cure that it will positively cure Hemorrhoids or Piles. Try a box and be made happy. Manufactured by the Barham Pile Cure Co., Durham, N. C. *

Ice, Ice.

To live through the summer without using ice is almost an impossibility. Blake's ice house is conveniently located, just opposite the market, and he is prepared to furnish that greatest of summer delicacies in any quantity. Don't forget Blake when ice is needed. *

D. S. Sanders,

Beaufort, N. C., dealer in salt and fresh fish of every description, by package or barrel. All orders accompanied with cash or good reference, will receive prompt attention, and be filled at the lowest market prices. d1m.

To Carpenters and Builders.

If you are needing anything in the way of edge tools or builders hardware, of any kind, we would advise you to call at J. C. Brewster's hardware house, where you can find a splendid stock of goods in this line, and at prices to suit the scarcity of money. All tools sold are fully warranted. He will contract for roofing at prices which will enable you to put in your bids (where there is any tin work to be done) lower than ever, giving you an opportunity to use tin in place of shingles.

He uses nothing except the best material.

J. C. BREWSTER,
Holleman Building.

Something Worth Attention.

Consigners of county produce should ship to A. C. Sanders & Co., because they are the only commission merchants in Raleigh. They do not buy at all on their own account, but make prompt returns, at the same prices they sell at which are the highest this market, affords. *

From Wilkes' Spirit of the Times, Dec. 8, '77.

A. B. C., MICH.—What should be done to reduce an enlargement of tendon of forward leg, the back tendon, caused by grabbing it while trotting. It is sound now, I think. It was fired last spring, and the horse turned out all summer. Answer.—Clip off the hair, and apply Giles' Liniment Iodide Ammonia twice a day, until it irritates, when temporarily discontinue, and commence again. It is the only remedy that will permanently remove a chronic enlargement of this kind. Send to Doctor Giles, 451 Sixth avenue New York, who will furnish full information.

Milestones on the Road, Health.

The recovery of digestion and the resumption of activity by the liver, bowels and kidneys are milestones which mark our progress on the road to health. They speedily become perceptible when Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is used by the invalid. Nothing so surely and expeditiously consumes the distance to the desired goal. As no bodily function can suffer interruption without impairing the general health of the system, so the system can never acquire perfect vigor health's synonym, until that function be actively resumed. Take, for instance, digestion, a suspension of which is invariably rectified by the Bitters. If the organs upon which it devolves grow weak, billiousness, constipation, headache, poverty of the blood and a hundred other symptoms supervene, which indicate unmistakably the baneful general influence of dyspepsia. The disappearance of all these symptoms through the use of the Bitters shows with what thoroness it removes their cause. jy 30-6td w-
